Andy Fletcher has 30 years' experience as a trial lawyer in complex business litigation. In the first eight months of 2022, Andy won three jury verdicts for his clients in patent trials held in Texas and Pennsylvania. Andy has tried numerous jury and non-jury trials to verdict in federal and state courts across the country, and he has led trial teams conducting arbitrations in Stockholm, London, and Zurich, and the United States.

Andy's trial experience includes patents, torts, civil rights, contracts, business torts, trade secrets, restrictive covenants, breach of fiduciary duty, corporate governance, shareholder disputes, trusts, and accountant and attorney liability. He has extensive experience representing technology-focused businesses, including software and systems, chemistry, chemical engineering, and mechanical engineering. On the appellate level, Andy has argued appeals before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third, Fourth, and Eleventh Circuits, the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court, and the California Court of Appeal.

From 1992 to 1993, Andy served as a law clerk for the Honorable Sam C. Pointer, Jr., Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Alabama. During law school, Andy was the notes editor for the Virginia Journal of International Law.

Outside The Firm

Andy serves as a Trustee of the Allegheny County Bar Foundation. He also serves as the President of Virginia Rowing Association, which oversees men's rowing at the University of Virginia.
