Ashley Williams concentrates her practice in the areas of white collar criminal law and internal investigations.

Ashley has notable experience advising clients on potential exposure under the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and other anti-corruption laws in connection with internal and government investigations, as well as pre- and post-integration due diligence.

Ashley also has experience participating in internal investigations, including reviewing documents, preparing witness outlines, memorializing witness statements, proposing remediation as part of final reports, conducting witness interviews, advising multinational corporations on formal disclosures, and preparing subpoena responses.

In addition, Ashley has assisted in evaluating and enhancing anti-corruption policies, procedures, and training for clients spanning an array of industries and global regions. She has designed and created global compliance procedures and policies relating to trade controls and anti-corruption for a multinational corporation operating in certain high-risk jurisdictions.
