

BLANKROME

Eric L. Bodzin | Associate
Real Estate

One Logan Square
Philadelphia, PA 19103
+1.215.569.5484
eric.bodzin@blankrome.com

photo coming soon

Eric L. Bodzin provides full-service guidance to national developers and institutional investors, as well as banks, hospitals, non-profits, and companies across commercial, industrial, and multi-family industries.

He focuses his practice on matters of real estate financing, acquisition, leasing, construction, condominiums, environmental, title, and diligence, including zoning, code enforcement, and tax assessment.

Eric is regarded as a trusted, connected, and experienced advisor and dealmaker who anticipates client needs from letter of intent through post-closing.

Prior to joining the firm, Eric served as an associate at a Philadelphia business law firm. He also previously served as a director of legislation for the Philadelphia City Council.

Select Engagements

- Advised a national real estate trust on purchases, sales, and leasing with focus on healthcare sector.
- Advised a private equity veterinary company on property transactions underlying corporate acquisitions.
- Advised a behavioral healthcare provider regarding acquisitions, construction, and land use matters.
- Advised a condominium owner on public offerings, new development, and association management.
- Advised an affordable and tax credit housing developer on regional property portfolio.

Admissions

- Pennsylvania

Memberships

- Building Industry Association of Philadelphia
- Philadelphia Bar Association Real Property Section
- Rebuilding Together Philadelphia
- Urban Land Institute, Philadelphia Chapter

Education

- Georgetown University, BA
- Temple University Beasley School of Law, JD