

Gregory P. Cronin | Associate
Litigation

1271 Avenue of the Americas
New York, NY 10020
+1.212.885.5156
gregory.cronin@blankrome.com

Gregory P. Cronin concentrates his practice on commercial litigation matters.

During law school, Greg was a member of the Fordham Urban Law Journal and Fordham's Moot Court Board, where he competed on the National Competition Team and won awards for best oralist and best brief. He also served as an honors intern for the Federal Bureau of Investigation in their Boston and New York City field offices.

Select Engagements

- Represented pro bono client in obtaining special immigrant juvenile status and dismissal of removal proceedings in Immigration Court.
- Obtained multimillion-dollar judgment for commercial real estate company related to one of New York City's largest transit hubs.
- Represented national wholesale distributor in obtaining dismissal with prejudice of successor liability claim.
- Obtained multiple judgments against brokerage firm for previously affiliated salesperson.
- Obtained successful resolution for an employer related to a federal labor dispute.
- Represented New York City real estate developer in complex dispute involving contested ownership and financing obligations involving condominium development property.

Admissions

- U.S. District Court - Western District of New York

- New York
- U.S. District Court - Eastern District of New York
- U.S. District Court - Southern District of New York

Education

- Fordham University, BA
- Fordham University School of Law, JD
- Universidad de Granada

Languages

- Spanish