Tyler W. Mullen concentrates his practice on commercial finance and restructuring matters, with a particular focus on asset-based lending. Tyler represents a wide range of clients, including banks, commercial finance companies, private equity firms, and other institutional lenders, as well as private and public companies, in areas such as:

- Commercial lending
- Asset-based financing
- Acquisition financing
- Debtor-in-possession financing
- Channel finance
- Real estate financing
- Secured transactions
- Restructurings, reorganizations, and workouts

During law school, Tyler served as senior editor for the Penn State Law Review and was a member of the Woolsack Society and the Corpus Juris Society. Tyler graduated cum laude from Davidson College with High Honors in Philosophy, where he was team captain of Davidson's NCAA Division I wrestling team.

Tyler regularly volunteers for SeniorLAW Center in Philadelphia where he prepares advanced life planning documents for economically disadvantaged senior citizens.
